Dear Tina,

Deleterious Materials Statement – Kent Street Baths

I hope this letter finds you well.

We are writing to confirm that, as outlined in Section 4.1 of our Consultancy Agreement, we have used the standard of reasonable skill and care specified in clause 2.1(b) to not specify for use in the project:

any materials generally known at the time of specification to be deleterious to health or safety or to the integrity of buildings and/or which by their nature or application contravene any British Standards or Code of Practice or European Union equivalent current at the date of specification.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you require further information or assistance regarding this matter.

Yours sincerely
